

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE February 9, 2007
CONTACT: Jared Cordes

(202) 225-5235

"The Administration's Budget Doesn't Add Up"

By Congressman Allen Boyd (D-FL)

This week, the President delivered to Congress his annual budget proposal, indicating his funding priorities.

One of the most glaring inadequacies with the Administration's budget is the proposed cuts to Medicare,

Additionally, the Administration's budget freezes funding for rural education, phases out rural health grants,

Possibly the most disappointing aspect of the Administration's budget proposal is the effect it would have on

The President has proposed these cuts to our healthcare programs, our community development programs,

As a fiscal conservative, I believe that getting our budget on a glide path to balance is not only a common

-30-